WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Sir/Madam,

Warm Greetings on the occasion of New Year 2021 from Paras family!

Paras Health Care with its network of six hospitals has been providing excellent healthcare to its patients for the past many years across North India, including three major cancer centers located Gurugram, Patna and Panchkula. Along with its partner Ujala Cygnus chain of 14 hospitals across Haryana, Paras Hospitals has expanded its cancer care into the two tier cities. With the galaxy of senior and well experienced, well reputed cancer specialists in all disciplines, the cancer care has been par excellence and has been known for its excellent personalized care at a modest cost. In addition, oncologists of all centres are virtually well connected conducting joint academic and inter centre professional activities including Pan Paras tumour boards and journal clubs, CMEs on a regular basis along with widespread cancer awareness sessions.

In this strong academic pursuit, Paras Health Care is glad to announce First Paras Cancer Conclave (completely virtual) hosted jointly by all the three Paras cancer centres Gurgaon, Patna and Panchkula, and supported by the all other hospitals as well as affiliated chain of hospitals on 19.03.21, 20.03.21 & 21.03.21. This three day (36 hours of sessions) event is designed educational conference designed to show case current, emerging and controversial aspects of management in Oncology covering all solid tumours, hematological malignancies for both adults and pediatric age groups including Bone marrow transplantation. This engaging program, with striking insights in depth from national and international experts, will highlight the current practice changing and the evolving standards of care in Oncology. The scientific program will be designed to cover the entire spectrum of cancers of all ages for the practicing oncologists, PG students, primary care physicians of all disciplines across the country with an opportunity for excellent virtual professional interaction and exchange at all levels. There shall be dedicated video workshops in all surgical medical, molecular, specialties, dedicated sessions to Meet The Experts for a One on One interaction to address the unmet needs and gaps that exist in the current practice.

We anticipate at least an attendance upto 3000 delegates, with over 750 oncologists across India targeting Medical Oncologists, Radiation Oncologists, Surgical Oncologists, haemato-oncologists, Surgeons, Physicians, Gynecologists, Pediatricians, ENT surgeons, Neurosurgeons, Urologists, Dentists, primary care physicians, pathologists, radiologists and many more.

You will realize more than anyone else that this conference will happen purely with strong academic and financial support from an esteemed company like yours with excellent academic and professional track record. It is our great pleasure to extend a warm invitation to you to participate in this meeting in your best possible manner including international speaker, participation in a virtual educative stall.
